

Bequest by will

A legacy of giving

Ways to give

By working with the Saginaw Community Foundation, you can predetermine the type of fund you would like to establish and specify how you want the fund to help your community.

Your fund will be endowed at the Saginaw Community Foundation. Earnings gained through investments will be used to make grants that address needs in Saginaw County. If you prefer, grants can be made anonymously.

You can make a lasting gift to your community by including a charitable bequest to the Saginaw Community Foundation in your will.

You can decide to make a bequest by will at any age by adding it to an existing will or drafting a new one. Additionally, your charitable gift is excluded from your assets for estate tax purposes.

Some of the most tax-efficient asset types to give through your estate plan come from retirement plan accounts, since heirs would be taxed on the income in respect of the decedent (IRD).

You can give cash, appreciated stocks or other assets. Through your will, you can choose to give a stated dollar amount, a specific property, a percentage of your estate, the remainder after distributions to other beneficiaries, or you can make your gift contingent on certain events.

Saginaw Community Foundation creates your personal legacy of giving by establishing a special fund. The fund can be set up in your name, in the name of your family, or in honor of any person or organization you choose. You also may choose to give to an existing fund.

For more information and ideas on ways to integrate your financial planning with charitable giving, ask your financial advisor or contact Saginaw Community Foundation at (989) 755-0545.

Sample legal language

The following language is suitable for inclusion of your will if you wish to leave a bequest (technically called to “devise” under Michigan law) to the Saginaw Community Foundation:

I devise to the Saginaw Community Foundation, a Michigan nonprofit corporation, (describe devise, such as: “One Thousand Dollars” or “all of the residue of my estate”) to be used in all furtherance of the charitable purposes of the Saginaw Community Foundation as defined in and subject to the provisions of its Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

If the amount of the devise meets the minimum contribution requirements of the Saginaw Community Foundation, you may create a separately identifiable fund by name and purpose by adding language from one of the four options (See reverse side.)
